

Improving Cancer Services – an Introduction to User Involvement

Would you like to turn your cancer experience into something that really helps others? Or are you a professional looking to increase opportunities for user involvement in your area of work?

This free workshop will outline the different ways you can get involved so that you can speak up about the issues that you care about.

Who is it for?

People living with cancer and carers who are interested in getting involved to improve services and health and social care professionals interested in involving users in improvement of services.

How long is it?

1-day workshop

What will I get out of it?

Increased understanding of what user involvement is and of the different ways to get involved.

How do I find out more?

For more information about how to get involved, please contact learning@macmillan.org.uk . Your enquiry will be forwarded to your local Learning and Development team for their attention.

www.macmillan.org.uk/learnzone

Macmillan Cancer Support, registered charity in England and Wales (261017), Scotland (SC039907) and the Isle of Man (604).