

Making a Difference (for User Groups)

Do you belong to a user group and would you like to use your experiences of living with cancer to improve your local cancer services?

This free workshop will outline how user involvement works in the NHS and social care and develop your skills and confidence to build and present the 'case for change'.

Who is it for?

People living with cancer and carers belonging to user groups who are interested in getting involved to improve local services.

How long is it?

2-day workshop

What will I get out of it?

Increased knowledge about the NHS and social care and how to get involved in improving local services.

How do I find out more?

For more information about how to get involved, please contact learning@macmillan.org.uk . Your enquiry will be forwarded to your local Learning and Development team for their attention.
